What lies beneath

As the rain arrives and the leaves begin to fall, they cover an even greater danger for unsuspecting feet. Any organic growth on your patios and footpaths absorbs rain, and can become a slippery no-go area for adults and children alike. Act now, and make those areas safe, before winter takes hold – buy Patio Black Spot Remover® from the Patio Black Spot Removal Company Ltd.

Patio Black Spot Remover is a one-time treatment, part of a system designed to increase the longevity of garden stonework, by controlling future organic growth, and reducing the need to pressure wash, without damaging surrounding plants.

Remove those layers, and your stonework can look like new in a matter of hours. The Patio Black Spot Removal System® containing Euchar2®, offers gardeners 'sustain ability' – the power to maintain and sustain the appearance of garden stonework, without regular pressure washing.

If a hose pipe ban is effective in your area, and you are concerned about safety in your garden, they have a team of site technicians who can carry out the work for you.

Check their website for some amazing Black Friday DIY offers, or call today and book an appointment for a quotation, without obligation.

Recharge rather than replace

 Car batteries can start to fail in colder months.

They have to work harder to get started, plus they get used more for lighting, wiper blades, heating the car or working heated car seats.

A replacement battery with the labour costs added in can be anywhere (depending on the battery type) between £100 to £200. Invest in a Ring RSC806 6A SmartCharger to recharge and revive your battery and extend its life. This way you can simply recharge your battery instead of replacing it. They are safe, easy to use, award winning, and for the cost of £34 this is money well spent in these tough times.

What is equity release?

Equity release is a special type of mortgage that is only available to homeowners over the age of 55. There are a huge range of plans available, which enable you to access some of the money – the equity – that has built up within the value of your home over time.

Unlike traditional, 'residential' mortgages, there are no mandatory payments to make (unless you want to), the interest rate is fixed for life and the plan is repaid when you die or move into long-term care.

Can you do your own research?

Equity Release Supermarket have developed a revolutionary tool which allows you to see which products you're eligible for before speaking to one of their award-winning financial advisers. Their latest TV campaign demonstrates how easy it can be to take control and see for yourself. With just a few details, smartER™ can show you product features and rates that you could be eligible for.

These are lifetime mortgages and home reversion plans. To understand their features and risks, ask for a personalised illustration. There will be a fee for mortgage advice on completion only. This will depend upon your circumstances, but it is estimated that it will be £995. Equity Release Supermarket Ltd is authorised and regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority.
